IGED 2019 – Save the Date!

IGED Jr. 2018 is happening this Friday, but we're already in the planning stages for IGED 2019!

Introduce a Girl to Engineering Day 2019 (IGED 2019) will take place on Friday, February 22, 2019, at the Bartle Hall Convention Center. IGED mentor and volunteer registrations are now open, and please sign up here if you will be joining us at the 2019 event!

Just like in previous IGED events, IGED will introduce high school girls to engineering disciplines through hands-on activities, an industry and university fair, an engineering discipline fair, college panel, and keynote speaker. Throughout the day, the students will be paired up with a mentor who is an engineering professional. For more information, please visit the IGED website here: <https://kcsweiged.blogspot.com/p/iged.html>

Outreach Opportunity: Prairie View High School Career Fair

Prairie View High School is hosting a Career Fair, allowing students the opportunity to learn of different careers available to them, from people in the field. They are looking for industry professionals to volunteer and present on their respective industry of expertise!
