

SWE-KC Special Event

Join us Wednesday, September 13th from 5:30 PM till 8:30 PM for our annual SWE-KC Fellows event (AKA “SWE-KC Talks”). The event is entitled “Bringing Technical Solutions to the Global poor; 24 Countries and Counting” and will feature keynote speaker Eva Szalkai Csaky, PhD MSF.

Dr. Csaky is the director of the Hunt Institute for Engineering & Humanity from the Southern Methodist University. Dr. Csaky will discuss the life cycle of bringing technical solutions to the global poor, including:

- Idea Generation
- Solution Creation
- Sustainability
- Effect on Student Participants

This free event will be located at the UMKC Diastole Scholars’ Center (2501 Holmes St. Kansas City, MO) and will include drinks and light hors d’ oeuvres. This event is classy so come dressed to impress and be ready to have a great night!

Please remember to RSVP at

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/swe-kc-talks-tickets-36714595343>